

Dear Sir / Madam,

Similar to previous year, we would sincerely ask for the assistance from your University / Organization in nominating Chinese youth leaders to participate one of the flagship programmes of The Dragon Foundation, Dragon 100 Young Chinese Leaders Forum 2011, which will be held on 24 July – 1 Aug 2011. The programme will provide a platform for meeting, sharing and discussion by participants who despite their different backgrounds have the same Chinese ethnicity. Participants would be able to gain a better understanding of their Chinese origin, hence reinforcing their sense of identity as outstanding “Young Dragons”.

Details of the Dragon 100 Young Chinese Leaders Forum 2011 are as follow:

Date: 24 July to 1 August 2011

Location: Hong Kong (3-day) and Taiwan (6-day)

Number of participants: 100 (including ethnic Chinese youth leaders from HKSAR, Mainland China, Taiwan, Macau, other Southeast Asia countries & elsewhere in the world)

Eligibility: Apart from having Chinese ethnicity, candidates must be aged between 18 and 35 and must be nominated by universities or other educational institutions, organizations and/or corporations.

Selection criteria: Outstanding academic performance, award recipients or exceptionally talented in a non-academic area, consistent record of involvement in community service or an outstanding record in extra-curricular activities.

Closing date for nominations: Early May 2011

Programme Foci :

- The Programme will be held in conjunction with the Dragon Series of The Hong Kong Federation of Youth Groups. Our 100 delegates will go to Taiwan for a 6-day tour together with other 400 participants from the Dragon Series programme.
- All participants will join part of the “30 Hour Famine” activity organized by World Vision Taiwan and perform in Mega Dragon Dance together.
- All delegates will take part in community service at Ma-Jia Farm in Pingtung County, Southern part of Taiwan.
- Delegates will also visit to major historical and cultural development projects interest; attend seminars and discussions with academics, university students and young professionals.
- Cultural and social activities will also be arranged.

Your University / Organization are invited to nominate outstanding Chinese youth who demonstrated leadership skills. More information regarding the application details will be announced in our website : www.dragonfoundation.net by Early April 2011. A set of poster, programme pamphlets & nomination forms will also be sent to you in due course.

Thanks for your continuous support in our Programme!
